A letter in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution 38 addressed to Senator B. Everett Jordan, chairman of the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, by Senator James O. Eastland, chairman of the Internal Security Subcommittee and of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, is as follows:

U.S. SENATE,
COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY,
June 15, 1965.

Hon. B. EVERETT JORDAN,
Chairman, Committee on Rules and Administration,
U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: On Friday, June 11, I introduced Senate Concurrent Resolution 38, providing for the printing of 5,000 additional copies of the Judiciary Committee print, "The Soviet Empire—A study in Discrimination and Abuse of Power," prepared for the Internal Security Subcommittee by the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress.

In 1958, the Legislative Reference Service assisted the subcommittee in preparing a report on Soviet genocide and related practices. This work was published under the title, "The Soviet Empire: Prison House of Nations and Races," on August 18, 1958.

The demands for this study have been so great that we find our supply completely exhausted, at a time when the subject has become one of increasing interest. I therefore authorized, with the approval of the subcommittee, a request that the report be brought up to date.

The new study, while directly related to the earlier one, contains a vast amount of new information, and should prove even more valuable. A new feature in this study is a group of six maps which clarify one of the most important points in the cold war; namely, who the imperialists and colonialists really are.

The foldout maps, in addition to new material, have increased the size of the publication so that in order to get a sufficient number of copies for adequate distribution a concurrent resolution is necessary.

I wholeheartedly commend this resolution to you, and ask that you and fellow members of the Committee on Rules and Administration report it favorably.

With kindest regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

JAMES O. EASTLAND,
Chairman, Internal Security Subcommittee.
